

The Best of the EAST Masters Course: This is How I Do It
Sunday, June 10, 2012, 1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Course Overview:

This course is an exciting didactic and interactive discussion forum with distinguished experts, focusing on clinical and technical strategies and approaches to complex patient presentations. It will represent selected presentations from the multi-year curriculum on mastery of difficult problems in trauma. The Masters faculty will present their own personal perspective and expertise on a clinical scenario and discuss their management style at their own institutions. At the conclusion of the course, a pre-selected complex case will be presented to the Masters panel for discussion.

Target Audience: Trauma and Acute Care Surgeons, Fellows and Residents

Learner Objectives - At the conclusion of this CME activity, the learner should be better able to:

- Describe the management of thoracoabdominal trauma patients with coagulopathy and critical bleeding.
- Discuss the management of penetrating trauma patients with mediastinal and esophageal injuries.
- Describe the management of complex liver injury.
- Describe the management of blunt trauma patients with combined cerebrovascular injury and traumatic brain injury.
- More effectively manage complex pelvis injuries.
- Describe the management of blunt trauma patients with pelvic fracture and hemodynamic instability.
- Describe the management of penetrating trauma patients with combined cardiac and pulmonary injuries.
