From Burnout to Suicide: How Do We Protect Ourselves & Each Other?

Presented by the EAST Mentoring Committee

Suicide, and specifically suicide among healthcare providers, has been on the rise, and has been part of the drive to promote wellness. This session will focus on understanding the spectrum of healthy stress which can lead to abnormal stress, which in turn can progress to burnout, depression, or even suicide. It is a complex issue, with risk factors inherent in the field of surgery, specifically, and medicine as a whole. This session will outline risk factors, treatment options, and preventative strategies for physicians and other healthcare providers to help themselves and their colleagues.

Moderator: Thomas Duncan, DO

Speakers:

Sharmila Dissanaike, MD - Risk Factors associated with healthcare related burnout/depression
Joseph Sakran, MD, MPH, MPA - Treatment options for individuals facing healthcare related burnout/depression
Michael Sise, MD - Tools/preventive strategies for healthcare providers facing burnout/depression

EAST Presidential Plenary Session - #EAST4All: An Introduction to the EAST Equity, Quality, & Inclusion in Trauma Surgery Practice Ad Hoc Task Force

Presented by the EAST Equity, Quality, & Inclusion in Trauma Surgery Practice Ad Hoc Task Force

The EAST Equity, Quality, & Inclusion in Trauma Surgery Practice Ad Hoc Task Force was formed recognizing that disparity continues to exist among our trauma colleagues, hospital colleagues, and patients. Despite efforts to recognize and mitigate instances of disparity, unconscious bias continues to be a pervasive issue that limits some members of the trauma community from realizing their potential in leadership and professional advancement. This session will address how implicit bias causes persistent inequity and how we can be conscious of this in our professional interactions and practices. This session will also discuss the task force's goals and objectives and seek discussion from the audience.

Moderators: Tanya L. Zakrisson, MD, MPH & Brian Williams, MD

Speakers:

Patricia Byers, MD & Kimberly Joseph, MD – Testimonial: Implicit Gender Bias in Early Career

D'Andrea Joseph, MD & William Lynn Weaver, MD – Testimonial: Racial Bias & Early Career

Sandra DiBrito, MD, PhD - Testimonial: Gender Identity & Sexual Orientation Bias

Stephanie Bonne, MD, Paula Ferrada, MD, & Rishi Rattan, MD – Sticky Floors & Glass Ceilings in Trauma: How Gender Disparity & Unconscious Bias Affects Trauma Teams & Leadership in Trauma
Adil Haider, MD, MPH, Haytham Kaafarani, MD & Ariel Santos, MD – Racial Inequity in Trauma Surgery: How Racism or Country of Origin Bias Prevents Trauma Teams from Thriving

Brian Williams, MD, Robert Winfield, MD & Tanya Zakrisson, MD, MPH – How EAST is Taking a Leadership Role in Identifying & Mitigating Discrimination & Bias to Encourage Diversity in our Profession

Integration of a Best Practice Radiology Guideline in the Trauma Population

Presented by the Society of Trauma Nurses

This session will provide a summary of the newly developed TQIP radiology best practice guideline and include suggestions on how to implement and utilize the guideline. An overview of current radiologic practices, impact of unnecessary radiologic imaging, and process measures to review after implementation of a radiology guideline will also be presented.

Moderator: Elizabeth Seislove, RN, MSN, CCRN

There are No Narcotics Left: Now What? Contemporary Options for Pain Management

Presented by the EAST Guidelines Committee

There is a worsening nationwide shortage of opioids and other intravenous pain medications, such as ketamine. Most hospitals are now rationing their supply of these medications but still have to treat pain. In addition to assuring patient comfort, appropriate treatment of pain is a key component of a hospital's rating, which, in turn, translates to financial reimbursement by the Federal Government. The purpose of this panel is to present a multidisciplinary approach to alternatives to intravenous narcotics for pain relief following injury.

Moderator: Babak Sarani, MD

Strategic Professional Development - An EAST Leadership Development Workshop

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 2019 • 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Presented by the EAST Career Development Committee

Target Audience: Early Career Trauma & Acute Care Surgeons including Fellows-in-Training

Needs Statement: Not all young surgeons have experts in career development in their mentor pool. This workshop provides essential contacts and education to help acute care surgeons succeed.

Overview: This workshop is part of the EAST Leadership Development series. It is a three-part, multiyear course focusing on the career development of the early career trauma surgeon. Each workshop is designed to be a stand-alone course. In this way, surgeons may participate in the course at any time in the three-part series. The 2019 workshop will focus on strategic professional development including self-assessment, defining career goals, and developing the tools to achieve these goals. The knowledge and skills gained at this course can be applied not only at one's own medical center but also at the professional organization level. Team-based learning exercises will be incorporated to encourage an active learning experience and provide more opportunity for interaction with course faculty. The faculty members include distinguished trauma and acute care surgery leaders known for excellence, not only in the EAST organization, but throughout the world.

Learner Objectives:

At the conclusion of the workshop, the participant should be better able to:

1. Identify suitable mentors and build mentor/mentee relationships.
2. Understand the pathways to profession and tenure and the requirements for success.
3. Perform a professional self-assessment of strengths weaknesses, skills and abilities.

Workshop Directors: Brian Brewer, MD, Jennifer Hartwell, MD, Jennifer Knight Davis, MD, Gary Marshall, MD, & Ayodele Sangosanya, MD

Bridging the Gap: A Chief Residents & Fellows Workshop

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 2019 • 1:30 PM – 5:00 PM

Presented by the EAST Career Development Committee

Target Audience: The audience is anyone soon pursuing or recently acquired a position in trauma and acute care surgery in both academic and private practice settings. This ranges from chief residents to fellows to new faculty.

Needs Statement: While most fellowships teach patient care and operative management, there are variable resources for transition to practice.

Overview: National trauma leaders will cover a wide range of topics needed to find a job as an acute care and trauma surgeon and excel in that job through career development. A vast overview of what will make an early career trauma surgeon happy, healthy, and successful in a lifelong career will be the focus of this interactive session.

Learner Objectives:

At the conclusion of the workshop, the participant should be better able to:

Advanced Practitioners in Trauma Workshop – Addressing Professional & Clinical Development When Caring for the Acutely Injured Patient

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 2019 • 1:30 PM – 5:45 PM

Presented by EAST and the Society of Trauma Nurses

Target Audience: Advanced Practitioners

Needs Statement: Advanced Practitioners (AP) in trauma comprise physician assistants and advanced practice nurses in a variety of settings. Each year, a task force representing APs from EAST and the Society of Trauma Nurses meets to identify areas involving emergency general surgery, critical care, and trauma care in which updated information can be disseminated. Although often considered on different ends of the trauma continuum, falls in geriatrics and ballistic injury patterns both remain hot topics. As more APs are encountering mass casualty events, identifying best practices and the role of the AP in surge events is gaining relevance. Finally, we all learn best from mistakes. When we share our past lessons, we can set our colleagues up for success when in similar positions in the future.

Overview: The 2019 EAST workshop for APs will carry a theme of best practices when caring for the trauma population. Participants will review the pharmacology behind falls in the geriatric population, opportunities for prevention, and best practices for preventing poly-pharmacy. These are the ABC's behind falls that you cannot afford to miss. Following falls, a review of penetrating trauma, from ballistics to stabbings, will enhance the understanding of kinetic energy leading to tissue injury. With the greater frequency of mass casualty events, participants will learn strategies and pitfalls behind managing surge capacity as well as how an AP can diversify his or her experience into trauma care on a greater scale. Finally, a panel will discuss lessons learned when caring for patients and how we can each learn from our errors in order to provide optimal care moving forward.

Learner Objectives:

At the conclusion of this workshop, the participant should be better able to:

1. Describe methods to prevent pharmacological contributions to falls.
2. Compare and contrast presentation and management of ballistic and stab injury patterns.
3. List pitfalls when addressing surge capacity during mass casualty events and opportunities for AP involvement.

STN TCRN® Preparatory Course

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 2019 • 7:45 AM – 5:15 PM

Presented by the Society of Trauma Nurses - For additional information on this workshop, visit the STN website at www.traumanurses.org

Target Audience: APRNs

Overview: To prepare nurses for the TCRN® Certification Examination. This 9-hour course will feature expert speakers covering topics specific to the body of knowledge in trauma nursing across the continuum of care, from injury prevention through reintegration to home. A faculty training component is available following completion via webinar for those interested in teaching their own course.

Learner Objectives:

At the conclusion of this workshop, the participant should be better able to:

1. Identify the key components of the TCRN® Exam Blueprint.
2. Participants will have renewed knowledge of basic trauma practices.
3. Participants will have reviewed sample TCRN® Exam Questions.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR EAST MEETINGS

1. Introduction. The Eastern Association for the Surgery of Trauma (“EAST”) is a nonprofit corporation, organized for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes. In particular, EAST: (i) fosters advances in the study and practice of the surgery of trauma; (ii) provides a forum for the exchange of knowledge pertaining to injury control, research, practice, and training in prevention, care, and rehabilitation of injury; and (iii) advances research, education, and training regarding the prevention, correction, and treatment of injuries (“Exempt Purpose”). In furtherance of its Exempt Purpose, EAST conducts and/or sponsors educational meetings including, without limitation, Annual Scientific Assemblies and periodic internal and external meetings and programs (collectively “Meeting(s)”).

EAST seeks participation in its Meetings by individuals with varied and diverse backgrounds. EAST is committed to providing a friendly, safe and welcoming environment for all Meeting attendees, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, ability, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, religion (or lack thereof), and other individual characteristics. This Code of Conduct (“Code”) outlines EAST’s expectations of its Meeting attendees (including EAST members, EAST Board members, sponsors, invited guests, and any other person attending a Meeting), as well as the consequences for Unacceptable Behavior (defined below). We expect all Meeting attendees will abide by this Code at all Meetings, and in connection with activities outside of Meetings when such behavior has the potential to adversely affect the safety and/or wellbeing of Meeting attendees.

2. Expected Behavior. EAST expects its Meeting attendees will:

- Exercise consideration and respect in their speech and actions.
- Attempt collaboration before conflict.
- Refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, or harassing behavior and speech.
- Be mindful of their surroundings and fellow attendees.
- Be respectful to all patrons at Meeting venues.

3. Unacceptable Behavior. “Unacceptable Behavior” EAST will not tolerate includes, without limitation:

- Violence, threats of violence, or violent language.
- Disruptive, intrusive, insulting, antagonistic, or any other malicious conduct.
- Sexism, racism, homophobia, transphobia, or other discriminatory conduct.
- Inappropriate photography or recording.
- Inappropriate physical contact.
- Unwelcomed sexual attention and/or advances; including, using sexualized language.
- Intoxication, contributing to inappropriate behavior.
- Deliberate intimidation, stalking or following (online or in person).
- Sustained disruption during Meeting events, including talks and presentations.
- Advocating for, or encouraging, any of the above behavior.
- Any other conduct deemed inappropriate and/or that may jeopardize the success of a Meeting, EAST’s reputation and goodwill, or the positive experience of any other Meeting attendee.

4. Consequences of Unacceptable Behavior. Unacceptable Behavior by Meeting attendees will not be tolerated. The determination of whether conduct constitutes Unacceptable Behavior, and the consequences imposed by EAST for the same, rest solely within EAST’s discretion, and said determinations are final and not subject to appeal. Anyone asked to stop Unacceptable Behavior is expected to comply immediately. If a Meeting attendee engages in Unacceptable Behavior and/or does not comply with this Code, EAST may take any action deemed appropriate, up to and including a temporary ban or permanent expulsion from a Meeting without warning (and without refund, in the case of a paid event).

5. Reporting Guidelines. If you are subject to, or witness, Unacceptable Behavior, or have any other concerns, please notify EAST as soon as possible by contacting EAST’s Executive Director or EAST’s Executive Committee. If the subject Unacceptable Behavior involves the Executive Director, please notify EAST’s current President. Additionally, Meeting organizers are available to help Meeting attendees engage local law enforcement, or to, otherwise, help those experiencing Unacceptable Behavior feel safe. During Meetings, organizers are available to provide escorts as desired to the Meeting attendee(s) experiencing distress.

Any questions or comments regarding this Code should be directed to EAST’s Executive Director.
